

new roof. Our congregation will collect a special offering for Neighbors Helping Neighbors on Sunday, June 20 (if I'm remembering correctly, everything for this program is donated by members of the community). We also will provide a meal one day for the workers. If you would like to help with the meal, please contact Julie Potter. And if you would like more information, call Joe Smith at the Jefferson Township Trustee's Office. As with all things, many hands make light work! Plus, it's just plain fun to do something like this with our neighbors for our neighbors! ~

Annual Conference in Pittsburgh, PA, July 3 – 7, 2010

Anyone who has ever gone to Annual Conference knows that it's like a big family reunion – even if you've never attended before – and even if you come from another country! Brethren gather from all over -- with representatives from Florida to California; the Dominican Republic; Brazil; Puerto Rico; Haiti; Nigeria; and sometimes even India. Worship is amazing! The singing is fabulous! Even reports, which you might expect to be dry and boring, are often spiced up with interesting videos or dramas. And Annual Conference is full of activities for every age -- from the very youngest conference goer to the very oldest! (Believe me when I say that! Several years ago when I decided that we wouldn't go to Annual Conference with Dan, our children were extremely upset and disappointed that we wouldn't be going! It's that good!)

This year, one of our youngest moderators ever, Shawn Flory Replogle, will lead us with the theme, "Taking Jesus Seriously," based on John 14:15: If you love me, you will keep my commandments." And of course, we know that the greatest commandments are to love God and to love one another! Sermon titles that week will be: "When Heaven and Earth Touch;" "Expectant Living," "Measurably New" (by Earle Fike who is well into his retirement years); "All We Can Be;" and "In It for the Long Haul." I'm feeling excited to hear some great preaching!

Conference goers will be able to select from 63 Insight Sessions (special one-hour workshops for personal and congregational growth) with titles like: Original Brethren
