A Letter from the Annual Conference Moderator – Prayer and Scripture Challenge

Greetings to all who have the opportunity to read this note. At Annual Conference I challenged persons to join me in reading a chapter a day from the New Testament. During the last week of July, I sent an email note to the members of Standing Committee, suggesting that we read through the book of Acts and 2 Thessalonians during the month of August. Then I got the “bright” idea of sharing (during the first week of August) that challenge with each District Office. I was hoping the information might be shared throughout each district in some way, even though it was late in arriving.... For those who are receiving this for the first time, the challenge shared at Annual Conference was threefold:
